

SHORT BIOGRAPHY OF MICHAEL PRINCE JOHNSON

Michael Prince Johnson (born November 24, 1983), is an Afro-American musical artist, music producer, composer, arranger, singer-songwriter, multi-instrumentalist, percussionist, virtuoso shekere player, and DJ.

He has released from 2007 up to today a total of 70 albums, over 600 songs, 44 soundtracks, 3 DVD film music documentary, DJ mix albums, and single-handed sold worldwide around 5.9 million includes streamings. From 2020 up to today he released 3 DVD film music educational documentaries " Knowledge, Music And Me ", " Human Behavior And Crime Zone " and " History Of Epidemics ". Also, over 30 educational documentary music videos. His most notable songs are "History Of Epidemics", "Black African Civilization Kemet-Egypt", "Forgetting The Culture Of Origin", " Importance Of Nature ", "Human Behavior And Crime Zone", "Employments", "Wrong Decision", "Health", "Miseducation", "Let's Go Crazy", and many more. His musical themes are about Black African Civilizations, the world history, the importance of nature, employments, the right decision, health, sociology, psychology, miseducation, history of religion, history of politics, pharma industry, biological weapons, and among other topics. His instrumental music includes all kinds of EDM, RnB/Soul, Funk, African Traditional Music, Afrobeat, Hard Rock, Popular Music, and among other music genres. He is a member of the successfully international music duo band 72 Diamonds with his wife Michaela Queenie Johnson.

For further information go to:

<https://www.michaelprincejohnson.com/>

<https://www.michaelprincejohnson.com/bio>

<https://www.top-charts.com/songs/rb-soul/austria/radio/2020-W21>

For listen to and buy go to:

<https://www.michaelprincejohnson.com/>

Youtube, Amazon, iTunes, Spotify, and up to 300 online stores.

Record Label: WorldOceanMusicGroup.com